

Helping Your Semester Group Continue

The relationships and spiritual growth developing in your Semester Group should not end when the semester does.

Your group can continue meeting as a Community Group. Continuing is simple. We're looking for:

01 PEOPLE who want to keep meeting	02 A HOME where the group can gather	03 A HOST willing to help welcome

Wellspring will provide the curriculum, guidance, and ongoing support.

Your Three Conversations

WEEK ONE	THINK AND PRAY Invite everyone to think and pray about continuing together. Ask them to consider participating or opening their home.
WEEK THREE	EXPRESS INTEREST Pass around the Circle Up Interest Form. Members can indicate interest in continuing, hosting, or learning more. Remind them this is not a final commitment.
FINAL NIGHT	ONE FINAL ASK Michael Moore will share the vision for Community Groups and invite everyone interested to Circle Up: A One-Night Experience.

These scripts keep the invitation clear, warm, and consistent across every Semester Group.

WEEK ONE — THINK AND PRAY

As we continue through this semester, we'd love for everyone to begin thinking and praying about what might come next. Some Semester Groups may choose to continue meeting after these initial weeks. You don't need to decide anything tonight—just begin considering whether you might like to continue with the group or possibly open your home as a place to meet.

WEEK THREE — EXPRESS INTEREST

We're beginning to explore whether there is interest in continuing this group beyond the semester. Continuing is simple: we need people who want to keep meeting and a home where the group can gather. Wellspring will provide the curriculum and support.

I'm going to pass around an interest form. Signing it does not commit you to anything—it simply lets us know that you would like to continue, might consider hosting, or want more information.

FINAL NIGHT — ONE FINAL ASK

Tonight, Michael Moore will share more about Community Groups and invite us to Circle Up: A One-Night Experience. If you're interested in continuing, hosting, helping lead, or simply learning more, please add your name to the interest form. There is no pressure and no final commitment tonight.

Leader reminder: Keep the clipboard visible, mention that Wellspring provides the curriculum and support, and personally encourage anyone who has shown interest.
